200 Block of FOURTH ST

The Juneau Police Department received a report of man causing a disturbance inside a business. An officer arrived and contacted the 34 year old male Juneau resident, who was causing the disturbance. The male was yelling profanities and refusing to leave the building. The officer attempted to escort the male from the building and he became combative, resisted, and was ultimately taken to the ground and placed into handcuffs. CCFR and EMS arrived to evaluate the man for possible injuries. He was transported to BRH for a medical evaluation and later released. Charges are pending for disorderly conduct and interfering with an officer.
